

The Central Appalachian Astronomy Club (CAAC) held its regular meeting March 2, 2013, at the Eat 'n' Park restaurant in Clarksburg, West Virginia, with 17 in attendance.

CAAC vice-president, Roy Jaworski, convened the meeting.

Minutes from the December meeting were distributed and accepted on a motion by John Taylor, seconded by Jim King.

Treasurer Jeri Booher presented the financial report, The report was accepted on a motion by Nancy Walker, seconded by Janice King.

Star Quest:

Roy reported that Robert Noaye, editor for Sky & Telescope magazine is scheduled to be our keynote speaker. David Eicher, editor for Astronomy magazine, cancelled. Warren Keller will be evening speaker for Wednesday. Rocket Boys will make an appearance Saturday afternoon. Joe will contact them.

George Walker reported that he has an electronic copy of our group photo from Star Quest 2012.

Old Business:

Regarding restoration of our EIN, John Taylor reported that we should now be good with the IRS. Dominion still says that our number is not good. They download on a monthly basis, so maybe they don't have the latest information. IRS said it takes 4-6 weeks to be posted. John will call Dominion. Jeri will call IRS. Joe, Roy, and John will discuss what to list in grant applications.

We recapped our Astronomy Day held January 19, 2013, at the Fairmont State University Gaston Caperton Center on the Clarksburg campus. We had about 100 adults and children participate.

Since we have not heard from her, Jeri will contact our scholarship winner to determine her continued interest.

We received a card from the WVU Physics Department thanking us for our donation to sponsor a chair in the new planetarium.

Miscellaneous:

Our next meetings will be 4/6 and 4/27 at Eat 'n' Park

The motion for adjournment was made by John Taylor, seconded by Janice King.